

CPx Profile and Fast Facts

Coastal Pacific Xpress Inc. (CPx) is a Surrey, BC-based trucking company specializing in temperature-controlled and just-in-time overnight deliveries.

CPx's main warehouse and distribution facility is in Surrey with a second warehouse/office facility located in Calgary. CPx also operates a terminal in Edmonton. Based from these facilities, CPx serves major markets throughout North America.

The company was founded in 1986, with a single truck and trailer. Rapid growth in the intervening years has resulted in a fleet that now includes more than 250 trucks and 700 trailers.

Headquarters:	Surrey, BC
Other Locations:	Calgary, Edmonton
Scope of Operation:	North America
Founded:	1986
Ownership:	Privately Held
Staff:	~200, Including 90 Company Drivers
Fleet:	>250 Trucks and 700 Trailers
Warehouse Space:	>90,000 Square Feet
Independent-Contractors:	~200
Major Customers:	Costco, Overwaitea, Safeway, Future Shop/Best Buy
Major Routes Served:	Vancouver to Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Saskatoon, Winnipeg /Pacific Northwest.
Major Products Moved:	Food and Other Perishables, Electronics and Consumer Goods
2008 Revenue:	$120 million.