

CPx Profile and Fast Facts

Coastal Pacific Xpress Inc. (CPX) is a Surrey, BC-based trucking company specializing in temperature-controlled and just-in-time overnight deliveries.

CPx's main warehouse and distribution facility is in Surrey with a second warehouse/office facility located in Calgary, Alberta. CPx also operates terminals in Nanaimo, BC, Edmonton, Alt., Saskatoon, Sask., Yorkton, Sask. and Brandon, Manitoba. Based from these facilities, CPx serves major markets throughout North America.

The company was founded in 1986, rapid growth in the intervening years has resulted in a fleet that now includes more than 250 trucks and 700 trailers.

Headquarters:	Surrey, BC
Other Locations:	Nanaimo, BC, Edmonton, Alt., Saskatoon, Sask., Yorkton, Sask. and Brandon, Manitoba
Scope of Operation:	North America
Founded:	1986
Ownership:	Privately Held
Staff:	200, including 90 Company Drivers
Fleet:	250 Trucks and 700 Trailers
Warehouse Space:	90,000 Square Feet
Independent Contractors:	180
Major Customers:	Costco, Maple Leaf Foods, Safeway, Future Shop/Best Buy
Major Routes Served:	Vancouver to Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Saskatoon, Winnipeg, Pacific Northwest
Major Products Moved:	Food and Other Perishables, Electronics and Consumer Goods
2010 Revenue:	120 million